ILLEGAL MEAT SLAUGHTER CONTINUES;
STATE FOOD INDUSTRIES EXCEED PLAN

TO INVESTIGATE ILLEGAL MEAT SLAUGHTER -- Trybuna Ludu, No 221, 13 Aug 49

Illegally slaughtered meat is being shipped to Warsaw by parcel post. The meat is purchased by speculators in the villages, usually in areas afflicted by live-stock epidemics. For this reason, and because of the unsanitary method of transportation, the meat is a serious threat to public health. The Special Committee is attempting to put an end to these procedures.

Within the last 7 months, the shoe industry produced 5,600,000 pairs of shoes, which is more than the annual prewar production of machine-made shoes.

MORE BAKERIES FOR WARSAW -- Zycie Warszawy, No 228, 20 Aug 40

The Consumers' Cooperative in Warsaw supplies over 40 percent of the residents with basic food products. However, there is a shortage of baked goods, since the six bakeries owned by the Consumers' Cooperative cannot supply the demand. This condition will be relieved somewhat when the cooperative opens five new bakeries in the near future. In addition, six other bakeries will be taken over sometime in the future.
